

Section 16.26.08 Signs Allowed Without a Permit.

The following signs are allowed in any zone indicated, on private property with the consent of the owner, without the requirement of a sign permit. If there is any deviation from the strict requirements of this section, the applicant must apply for a permit, and the Director will determine if a review by the Planning Commission is required.

(13) On-Premise Home Occupation Signs. One (1) non-illuminated flat wall sign not over two (2) square feet in size which identifies the name of the business is allowed without a permit. No other forms of advertising are allowed for a home occupation.
